

You will need: An empty box, paper towel roll, glue, and rubber bands. Optional supplies of scissors crayons, paint, paper to cover and color the box

1. Grab an empty box. If it is enclosed on all sides, cut out a hole in the box.
2. Optional: Cover the box with paper so your child can color/paint the guitar they way that they want.
3. Color the paper towel roll as well.
4. Glue the paper towel rolls at the top of the box.
5. Place rubber bands across the box as if they were the strings.
